Air Force	1	Victim and Retaliator are coworkers at the Base Pharmacy. Victim claimed she had the alleged retaliation three things: (1) that Victim was sexually assaulted while deployed and (2) Victim was sexually assaulted in a different sexual assault investigation (the alleged offender for both of these assaults is unknown). A CID was conducted in the aftermath of a complaint of retaliation. The allegation of retaliation was not substantiated because there was no direct evidence. Retaliator was aware that Victim (1) was sexually assaulted while deployed and (2) was sexually assaulted in a different sexual assault. No action was taken as a result of the CID.	(4) Coercion or Intimidation	(1) Unsubstantiated Report of Sexual Assault	(1) Victim of Alleged Sexual Assault or Complaint of Sexual Harassment	(2) Female	(2) Female	(6) Alleged retaliator is a peer, co-worker, friend, or family member of the retaliation reporter	(7) Alleged perpetrator is unknown/investigation ongoing	(6) MED Administration	(3) Chain of Command	(4) Allegations unsubstantiated (administrative investigation)	(1) Yes, results provided to the reporter		NA	(1) Ineffective evidence of any offense to prosecute
Air Force	2a	The basis for retaliation complaint is that reporter had previously assisted a female E-4 in unit to make a formal complaint of sexual harassment against an E-4 in unit. The complaint the E-4 made was thoroughly investigated and substantiated by CID. With regard to reporter's claim, it was founded in fact. First, a female E-4 in their squadron was told not to talk to the reporter. The E-5 was told not to talk to the reporter because of a perceived professional relationship with reporter. Second, the reporter was not permitted to be part of a discussion about an Airman in the unit who had failed a PT test (reporter was not the Airman's supervisor). Third, the squadron commander removed him from responsibilities related to the base air show and banned him from a meeting related to same (the duties were reassigned to the CID for the CID's benefit). Finally, reporter perceived the squadron commander was ignoring her in the unit. Reporter had all four items in retaliation for assisting the E-4 in filing the sexual harassment complaint. Reporter made a formal complaint to IG against the flight DNCO, the flight CID and the squadron commander. The group commander appointed a CID as director of IG. All allegations of retaliation and coercion were substantiated. Air Force	3	A traditional partner alleged that while attending the squadron annual field training, she was sexually assaulted by the unit's First Sergeant. The victim told a friend, another Airman in the unit, about the assault and that friend reported it to the squadron commander on the unit. An investigation was conducted by the squadron commander. The victim was not permitted to be part of a discussion about an Airman in the unit who had failed a PT test (reporter was not the Airman's supervisor).
